8] CONCLUSION

It is found that Shripatrao Chougule Arts And Science College, Malwadi-Kotoli, Tal-Panala, Dist- Kolhapur has lots of strengths. Gender balance is good, so the atmosphere in the college campus is natural. Some weaknesses can be overcome with efficient mind set up. In future its strengths will contribute towards the concept “GENDER SENSITIVE COLLEGE” and with strong “Will power” and commitment to gender justice the college would certainly make a benchmark even in rural area.
